

I, Leví Saul López Campos, Fashion Designer by profession, issue this letter of recommendation in favor of Cindy Rachell Ramírez García, whom I have known for 8 years.

During this time, I have witnessed Cindy's growth in all her skills and observed her professional and personal qualities. Her willingness to learn and her ability to master areas she is passionate about, such as experience design, are particularly noteworthy.

Cindy is characterized by her strong sense of responsibility and rigorous adherence to instructions. When faced with unfamiliar and complex situations, she demonstrates unwavering effort, maintaining a proactive and ambitious attitude until she achieves her goals.

Among the projects he has carried out are the design of my logo, the development of web pages, including my "Catalog of shirts" and "L&L Studios" photography and video, which in each project reflected what I sought to convey.

She is a person with great potential, discipline, and commitment—qualities that I am sure will lead her to excel in any project or professional challenge she undertakes. Without a doubt, Cindy is a talent with a bright professional future.

I extend this recommendation for whatever purpose it may serve.

Sincerely,

Leví Saúl López Campos
