

I, Levi Saúl López Campos, Fashion Designer by profession, issue this letter of recommendation in favor of Cindy Rachell Ramírez García, whom I have known for 8 years.

During this time I have been able to witness the growth in all her skills and confirm Cindy's professional and personal qualities. What stands out mainly is his willingness to learn and his ability to master areas that he is passionate about, such as experience design.

Cindy is characterized by her high sense of responsibility and rigorous follow-up of the instructions received. In the face of unknown and complicated situations, he demonstrates constant effort, maintaining a proactive and self-improving attitude until the set objectives are achieved.

She is a person with great potential, discipline and commitment, qualities that I am sure will lead her to stand out in any project or professional challenge she undertakes.

Without a doubt, Cindy is a talent with a great professional future.

I extend this recommendation for the purposes that suit the interested party,

Sincerely,

Leví Saúl López Campos
